

Policy Summary

Euromarine Sailplan Livaboard Policy

Summary of Cover

This policy summary does not contain full details and conditions of this insurance; these are located in your policy document. Please refer to your policy schedule to confirm the endorsements that apply to your policy. If you have any questions regarding your policy or the cover it provides or are unsure of the endorsements that apply please contact Rossborough Insurance who arranged this policy for you.

Underwritten by Lloyd’s Syndicate 4444 managed by Canopus Managing Agents Limited who are authorised by the Prudential Regulation Authority and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority and the Prudential Regulation Authority. Sompo Canopus is a brand name for Canopus Managing Agents Limited.

Type of Insurance and Cover

Your policy is a multi-section insurance policy. Unless amended by endorsement in your schedule, it protects your craft and your liability to other people, including passengers on your craft. The insurance protection applies whilst your craft is in commission or whilst it is laid up, provided it is within the cruising limits you have chosen.

Duration

This is an annually renewable policy. The period of insurance will be shown in your schedule of insurance. You may need to review and update your cover periodically during the term of your policy to ensure that it remains adequate.

General Policy Exclusions

- Any specific exclusions or limitations shown in your schedule.
- Unless it is noted by endorsement in your schedule, you are not insured if you use your craft for hire or charter, for anything except your own private pleasure, as a houseboat (a craft that is permanently located or moored at a single location, which is permanently connected to either the on shore mains gas supply, mains electricity supply, mains water supply or sewage system) or outside the cruising limits shown in your schedule. However, you may travel outside of your cruising limits if you are forced to by the weather, any form of danger or an order of Government or legal authority.
- Unless it is noted by endorsement 6 (Time restriction on single handed sailing) in your schedule you are not insured to use your craft single handed for more than 18 hours in any 24 hour period.
- Unless it is noted by endorsement 9 (Length restriction on single handed sailing) in your schedule you are not insured to use your craft single handed if your craft is more than 10 meters in length.
- Terrorism, radioactive contamination, sonic bangs, war risks (unless endorsement 11 (War) is shown in your schedule), riots and civil commotion.
- You should refer to Section 4 – General Policy Exclusions of your policy wording for the full details of all the exclusions that apply to all sections of your policy.

General Policy Conditions

- You must comply with the following conditions to have the full protection of your policy. If you do not comply with them Your Insurers may cancel your policy or refuse to handle your claim or reduce the amount of any claim payment.
 - You must take reasonable care to provide complete and accurate answers to the questions Your Insurers or your Insurance adviser ask when you take out, make changes to or renew your policy. Your policy may not be valid or may not cover you fully if the information provided by you is not complete and accurate or if you do not tell us about any changes.
 - You must let your insurance adviser know if there are any changes to the information set out in your schedule. You must also tell your insurance adviser within 14 days of the change taking place about the following:
 - i) Any additional people to be insured or any insured person to be taken off the policy;
 - ii) Any criminal convictions for any of the people insured or to be insured;
 - iii) Any change in your craft's mooring or storage location;
 - iv) Any change to your craft's original specification;
 - v) Any modifications to your craft;
 - vi) Any change affecting ownership of your craft;
 - vii) Any change in the way that your craft is used for example from private and pleasure use to charter use.
 - viii) Any change in the market value of your craft unless Endorsement 10 (Agreed Value) is shown in your schedule

- Please refer to Section 5 – General Policy Conditions for full details.
- You must advise your insurance adviser immediately you are aware of any event, occurrence, prosecution, inquest or inquiry that may give rise to a claim under your policy. Your Insurers may not pay your claim if you fail to do this. Please refer to Section 6 – Claims Condition.
- You must send all claims, letters, summonses or legal documents to your insurance adviser within 48 hours of receipt. You must not reply to any of these documents. Your Insurers may not pay your claim if you fail to do this. Please refer to Section 6 – Claims Condition.

Your Right to Cancel

You may cancel this policy within 14 days from the date you bought it or the date you received your policy documents (whichever is the later) by contacting your insurance adviser during this period. Your Insurers will give you a full refund of any premium you have paid provided you have not made and are not intending to make a claim and no incident likely to give rise to a claim has occurred.

You may cancel this policy at any time by providing prior notice to your insurance adviser. Providing you have not incurred eligible claims during the period Your Insurers have been on cover Your Insurers will retain an amount of the premium in proportion to the time Your Insurers have been on cover and return the balance to you. This refund is calculated on a daily pro – rata basis.

If you cancel your policy and have made a claim during the current policy period of insurance Your insurers will not refund any premium.

Your Insurers reserve the right to cancel your policy where there is a valid reason for doing so, by providing 14 days' notice by registered post to your last known address. The reason for cancellation will be set out in our letter to you and a non-exhaustive list of valid reasons is provided in your policy wording.

You will find full details of the conditions of how to cancel your policy on page 27 of your policy wording.
